

JST America Quality Policy

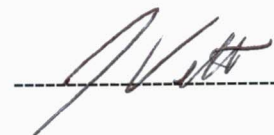

JST is committed to providing products and services at the highest possible standards, to satisfy our customer expectations

JST accomplishes objectives by establishing, implementing and maintaining a documented effective Quality Management System which complies with the requirements of IATF 16949: 2016

- JST utilizes continuous improvement in order to improve quality and reduce costs.
- JST Drives improvement through effective training of employees.
- JST Drives improvement through management communication and support.
- JST assures customer satisfaction by providing on time delivery.
- JST Quality involves customer satisfaction by providing effective product service.

Randy Schindler
Plant Manager

Joe Vettese
Quality Control Manager